

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|                                                                                                                                                    |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Introduction .....                                                                                                                                 | 9   |
| CONSTRUCTING OFFICIAL HISTORIES:INSTITUTIONS AND PERSONALITIES                                                                                 |     |
| Viktoriia Serhiienko                                                                                                                        |     |
| ‘Official History’ for a Stateless Nation:Mykhailo Hrushevs’kyi’s Illustrated History of Ukraine .....                                  | 15  |
| Andrii Portnov                                                                                                                              |     |
| How History Writing Became ‘Official’:Soviet Ukrainian Historiography Reconsidered .....                                                       | 39  |
| Éric Aunoble                                                                                                                                |     |
| “To Reflect the History of the Party as It Was”:The Ukrainian Branch of the Marx-Engels-LeninInstitute in Critical Times (1945–1949) ..... | 65  |
| Estelle Bunout                                                                                                                              |     |
| Embedded Revisions?Past Relations with Eastern Europe at thePolish Institute of International Affairs (PISM)(1947–1965) .....          | 87  |
| Korine Amacher                                                                                                                              |     |
| History Textbooks in Russia (1992–2019):Between Multisided and Imperial Perspectives .....                                                     | 105 |

LITERATURE AS A HISTORY'S PLAYGROUND

Miriam Kruse

- Martyrs, Traitors, Healing Housewives:
The Representation of Female War Experiences in Boris Gorbатов's Taras' Family (1943) ..... 135

Oleksandr Zabirko

- The War in Neverland:
The History of Novorossiia as Literary Project ..... 151

(RE-)INVENTING MEMORIAL SPACES

Tatiana Zhurzhenko

- The Monumental Commemoration of St. Volodymyr / St. Vladimir in Ukraine, Russia, and Beyond: The Nationalization of the Past,
the Orthodox Church, and 'Monumental Propaganda'
Before and After the Annexation of Crimea ..... 173

Paul Zalewski / Oleksandra Provozin

- Construction and Destruction:
How St. George's Square in L'viv Became a Battlefield ..... 219

Živilė Mikailienė

- Memory Culture and Memory Politics
in Lithuania (1990–2018):
The Case of Lukiškės Square in Vilnius ..... 237

THE EUROMAIDAN, THE DONBAS WAR,
AND ITS TRANS-BORDER DIMENSIONS*Alexandr Osipian*

- World War II Memory Politics in Russia and Ukraine and Their Uses During the Conflict in the Donbas
(Spring–Summer 2014) ..... 267

Felix Ackermann
History as a Means of Hybrid Warfare?
The Impact of the Ongoing War in Eastern Ukraine
on Historical and Political Discussions in Lithuania ..... 291

Ursula Woolley
The Securitization of Entangled Historical Identity?
Local and National History Discourses
in Dnipro During the Poroshenko Presidency ..... 319

List of Contributors ..... 349

Index of Persons ..... 355