

List of Authors

Eszter Cs. Herger, Professor of European Legal History and Family Law, Doctor of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (DSc), Head of the Dezső Márkus Research Group for Comparative Legal History – <http://md.ajk.pte.hu>.

Mirela Krešić, PhD, Full Professor at the Department of History of Croatian Law and State at the Faculty of Law, University of Zagreb. Her research interests include topics from Croatian legal history related to the application of the Allgemeines bürgerliches Gesetzbuch in Croatia, the position of women, inheritance, Croatian communal households and notary public as well as commercial law and civil procedural law in interwar Yugoslavia. She has participated in a number of research projects and research conferences in Croatia and abroad. She is a member of the editorial board of the Časopis za suvremenu povijest (Journal of Contemporary History), Δίκη – Δίκη and the Journal on European History of Law.

Martin Löhnig holds the Chair of Civil Law, German and European Legal History and Canon Law at the University of Regensburg. For more info cf. www.martin-loehning.de.

Dunja Milotić, PhD, Associate Professor at the Department of History of Croatian Law and State at the Faculty of Law, University of Zagreb. Her main research interests include criminal and criminal procedural law, jury trial, commercial law and civil procedural law in interwar Yugoslavia. She has authored one book and edited several books, as well as publishing a large number of articles in Croatian and international publications. She is a member of the editorial board of the Vjesnik istarskog arhiva (Journal of the Istrian Archives).

Petra Skřejpková (JUDr., Ph.D.), works at Charles University, Law Faculty, Prague. Studied law at the Faculty of Law of Charles University, worked at the Academy of Sciences of the Czechoslovak Republic, then switched back to the Faculty of Law. She works at the Department of Legal History, Faculty of Law. Apart from teaching, her primary focus is on Czech and Czechoslovak legal history in a European context. Her work deals with questions of the codification of law from a historical point of view. Further, she focuses on legal science at the German Faculty of Law in Prague in the interwar period. She is the Editor-in-Chief (from 2018) and Executive Editor (from 2023) of the journal Právněhistorické studie (Studia Historia et Iuris Pragensis, edited by the publishing house Karolinum. Contact: skrejpko@prf.cuni.cz; <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-5948-6848>

Kamila Staudigl-Ciechowicz, Assistant Professor at the University of Vienna (Department of Legal and Constitutional History) and lecturer and research fellow at the University of Regensburg (Chair of Private Law, German and European Legal History and Canon Law). She studied Law (Vienna) and Canon Law (LL.M., Vienna), received her doctorate in Law (Vienna, 2017, thesis on legal history of the Viennese University) and is currently writing her habilitation in private law history. She specialises in European legal and constitutional history, with a focus on the 19th and 20th centuries, in particular the interwar period. For more info cf. www.staudigl-ciechowicz.at.

Anna Stawarska-Rippel, Associate Professor (Dr. Habil. Professor at the University of Silesia) at the Faculty of Law and Administration, Institute of Law, University of Silesia in Katowice, Poland. She is an author of scientific publications in Poland, the USA, the UK, and Germany on the evolution of law from a comparative perspective, especially in judiciary and court proceedings, as well as the unification and codification problems, totalitarian system of law (soviet law), and family law.